

Daily Blog

Category: Ricky

Published: Saturday, 21 June 2008 06:10

Kat Bowser Brings Down The House

Kat Bowser (see The Daily Blog Archives, December 24th concert) has been in La Veta all week training for her new job. That's right, Justin and I welcome Kat to the Tims Art Quilt Studio (TAQS) - not to be confused with the The Quilt Show TQS) fold. This means that many of you just might get the chance to see her because when we do the Ricky Tims Super Quilt Seminars - or when we trek off to Houston or Paducah, it is likely that she'll be there working with us. That means I can have her sing a song or two during the concerts. Yee-haw!!!

Because the concert last December was such a success, we presented two shows to full houses last night here in La Veta. It was a Broadway/Cabaret specacular. Kat performed a few classics like New York, New York and Cabaret, as well as Broadway favorites such as Memory from Cats, Send in the Clowns from A Little Night Music, and I Dreamed a Dream from Les Miserables. Two shows and two standing Os.

We're off to the airport this morning so she can head back to Nashville and begin working in her new "home office." Congratulations Kat, we're looking forward to seeing you here on TQS too. Her new profile is KatBowser.