

Daily Blog

Category: Ricky

Published: Saturday, 02 August 2008 15:08

Retreat Quilters Visit Autumn Rock

On the morning of the last day of our recent La Veta Quilt Retreat, I took the students on a drive up to Autumn Rock. We didn't see any bear, but we did see about 100 elk. I still have a vision that someday this will be a place to hold quilt retreats. In the meantime, we can only make these short visits.