THE BIG WINNER! - - Alex

Yesterday morning, I like thousands and thousand quilters were tuned into The Today Show to see the $100,000.00 quilt winner. Congratulations Linda McCuean, your white on white quilt is stunning. I do wish they had shown it indoors, wasn't fond of the set up. But honestly, if I were Linda, I don't think I could sleep for the next two weeks! AND I hear the quilt will be at the Road to Ca show. How cool it will be to check it out in person.

For those of you watching, did you catch the part about Apple's new technology? Both my Mom and daughter called at the same time asking about it, and because I was both answering phones, I missed most of it! I believe it is a new product that allows us to watch the internet on our TVs! How great is that??!! If any of you heard the details, please respond in the comment section. I want to know more.
