MicroCosmos II - Call for Entries

At Tims Art Quilt Studio and Gallery in La Veta, CO

MicroCosmos II is a show that features sets of three small 5 x 7 inch quilts - in other words, triptychs. The theme is Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow. The deadline for entering this show is February 23. All entries must be for sale and the asking price for the entire set may not exceed $250. The first show was a HUGE success. For complete details and entry forms visit Ricky's site, under his photo above - then > TAQS Gallery.
