

Daily Blog

Category: Breaking News

Published: Thursday, 25 January 2007 01:57

---

Sewing and Needle Arts Show to benefit Special Needs Adults

---

The Campbell River, British Columbia recreation department is hosting its 27th Annual Sewing and Needle Arts Show on February 23 & 24, showcasing talent from all over Vancouver Island. The show is a fundraiser for sewing classes for adults who have special needs. The proceeds raised from this show will assist in the purchase of sewing machines and fabric for the class participants. For more information please contact jody.ridgeley@campbellriver.ca.