Walking Tour of La Veta #2

As we continue down Main Street we see several churches right next to each other. The First Baptist Church has a steeple and a bell.

The United Methodist Church was next. Check out the great parsonage just below.

What a great house.

Next is the Catholic Church with an Adobe motif.

Then, behind the diner (more about that later) is another Baptist Church.

Just off Main Street in a residential area is a long, thin, very cute Episcopal Church.
