

Daily Blog

Category: Breaking News

Published: Friday, 01 August 2008 04:01

Roses and Baby's Breath by Sue Garman

"Roses and Baby's Breath" by Sue Garman

It's August and just when you thought you had all of the stitching techniques down, Sue Garman brings out a new surprise to keep you on your toes. This month you will be working on creating delicate baby's breath and a floral vase insert. Baby's breath is a small white clustered flower stem found so often in romantic floral arrangements. So let's get romantic and create this month's stunning block. To download this Block of the Month pattern click here.