

Daily Blog

Category: Breaking News

Published: Sunday, 18 January 2015 23:52

Secrets for Precision

Teacher, author and award-winning quilter Sally Collins has been sewing for a long time - long enough to develop the exacting methods that result in her stunning and technically flawless pieces. Join us in Episode 1602 as Sally reveals:

- Secrets to creating perfect templates, even for unusual shapes
- How to perfectly chain piece
- How to iron seams correctly

We finish with a tour of the day's location, Alden Lane Nursery in Livermore, CA, where Alex hosts the annual Quilting in the Garden event every September...and where Sally also receives an unexpected sweet surprise!

Watch the Show