Off to PA

As you read this I am probably somewhere over the United States heading towards PA. On Wednesday I will be hanging out with Gloria Horn's Sewing in Pittsburg along with several hundred of you! Then on Friday and Saturday I will be in Philadelphia hanging with three Bernina dealers – Byrne Sewing Connection, Hayes Sewing Machines and Steve's Vac and Sew – In all cases there are more seats to be had. I would love to meet you and if you do attend – please remember to wear your TQS badge!
