Make A Macaroon For Your Sweetie

As Valentine's Day is just around the corner, we thought you might want to make your sweetie a macaroon we found on Craft Passion.

While a "true" macaroon is a sweet, meringue-based confection with ganache, butter cream, or jam filling sandwiched between two cookies, your recipient will appreciate this calorie-free version, which looks adorable hanging from a purse, tote bag, or cell phone.

These little bundles are so cute, you just might want to make a half dozen.
