

Daily Blog

Category: Member Stories

Published: Sunday, 25 March 2007 00:00

---

He waited 4 years....

---

Story Submitted by: MarietNieskens

On my husbands 50 birthday I gave him what one day would be a quilt of him 3 years old on a tricycle. He already loved it and it was only just started. I made the quilt from a picture his mother gave me (2X2 inch big and black and white) Next month he will be 54 and guess what he will get the finished pieced because I DID it. The quilt is finished and it is great. He looks realy 3 years and cycling. My husband still love to cycle and maybe one day I will make a quilt of him now on his bycycle. Will be continued.....