Alex LIVE Wednesday 10am PST. Successful Fabric Combinations and More...

Alex LIVE Wednesday

In today's environment, many of us have been asked to self-quarantine to defeat this vicious virus. We understand that as creatives, we all need to keep creating and Alex wants to help. Go to our Facebook page Wednesday at 10am Pacific Time (12 CST 1pm EST) 5pm London.

Today, Alex will talk about Successful Fabric Combinations. If you miss it, just click the Watch the Video button. Let's all come together, keep safe, and keep creating. It's a great time to binge watch past Quilt Shows you've missed. Alex will have some suggestions. It's all in fun and for learning and supporting each other.

Did you miss Monday? It was on neutrals. Watch the Video ▶
