Anna and G on the Road: Quilt Week!!!

I know, I know...it is a virtual Quilt Week in Sisters, Oregon...but no one is the boss of us here in quilt country and we are going ahead with a spectacular virtual extravaganza! You have got to check out the happenings on the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show site and the Stitchin' Post. Also, when you are thoroughly enjoyed yourselves, please go over to The Quilter's Affair and sign up for 2021!!! We are really going to party!!!

I had to stop by the Stitchin' Post because there is a wonderful mother/daughter display, which if you are traveling through town you must stop and see. Jean Wells Keenan started the quilt show 45 years ago with just a handful of quilts...now it has grown into a mega event and her daughter Valori Wells is at the helm of the Stitchin' Post ship. What better way to commemorate the history than by having a display in the Twigs Gallery by both these wonderful artists.

Here are just a few of the pieces you will see when you visit the Stitchin' Post.
