On the Set with Sherri Lynn Wood and Ann Myhre

Improv quilter extraordinaire Sherri Lynn Wood is on the set. Sherri Lynn brings a distinctive voice to her works and considers her quilts to be her sculptures. She works with Alex and a traditional block to explore pattern and create a "new" block. She also talks about the process of making bereavement quilts.

Also on the set, Ann Myhre offering a look at her collections of intended work and how she likes to store them, via vintage tea cups, baskets, small containers, and other various objects. Ann then presents a collaged work featuring a fox that includes a multitude of techniques.
